Clarkson basketball and hockey will be featured on the station throughout the winter season. Starting this Saturday afternoon at 2:50 when Clarkson plays its first home basketball game against McGill University of Montreal and Saturday evening at 8:05 when the Tech sextet faces off against Queens. The combination of Bob Marx, Ron Willman, Dick Dorf, and Barry Fischer will be on hand to bring you the thrills and color of the action. The hockey games will be brought to you through the courtesy of the Northern New York Trust Co., Potsdam office. Air time for all contests will be 10 minutes prior to the starting time of the games.

All basketball games originating from the new SUTCP gym will not be broadcast for the time being, but it is hoped that after the first of the year the difficulties will be ironed out. As soon as they are, the games will be aired.

Other new program features that will be sent your way on WNTC this winter are "Way Back When" featuring Joan Kierney and "Band of the Week." "Way Back When" will include songs which were popular during the early 30's while "Band of the Week" will depict and explain different types of music. The times of the programs are 9:30 to 10:00 p. m. on Tuesdays and 8:00 to 8:30 p. m. on Wednesdays respectively.
